- 1. At about 9 p.m. on 3 January 1949, an explosion occurred opposite the Hotel des Indes, Batavia. Almost simultaneously a fire broke out in the temporary Higher Elementary School at Oranje Boulevard and Fegangsa an. Later a fire started in the Elementary School at Gang Commendant, Tangki, in downtown Batavia. Extensive police patrol had prevented incidents on New Year's Eve and New Year's Day.
- 2. In Tjikkmpek, rural Batavia, the railway strike continues. The Chinese community has evacuated the village of Purwodadi, in Peranukan, and Tjiasenlands, which were attacked by guerrillas three times in the last week of December.
- 3. In Bantam, almost all Chinese stores and dwellings were burned by the Tenterm Nazional Indonesia (TNI) before the Dutch troops entered the town.
- 4. Between fifty and seventy five guerrillas are concentrated in the region between Bogor and Sukabumi, at the village of Karangtengah, for the purpose of preying on passing trains.
- 5. Several groups of the Hizbullah and the TMI are concentrated at the foot of Mt. Tjeremai, in the visinity of Cheribon, with the object of sniping at passing vehicles on the highway between Cheribon and Bandung.
- 6. On 24 December 1948, Gombong, in Central Java, was attacked with rifle, machine gun, and mortar fire by about one company of TNI infantry from the village of Sidaju. The attack was repulsed and many of the mortar shells fell in padi fields.
- 7. One hundred and eight land mines (Japanese airplane bombs) were dug up along the highway connecting Kostonrojo and Gombong.
- 8. Muller, a German professor in the Republican Naval and Military Academy at Jogjakarta, was captured by the Dutch at Sarangan and has now been intermed, along with Dr. Douwes Dekker and Adam Malik, Banaging Editor of Antara.
